

---

NEW ST. PAUL PASSENGER AGENT.

---

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Frederic A. Miller was to-day appointed General Passenger Agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway system, to succeed George A. Heafford. Mr. Miller has been connected with the company seventeen years. He was born at Hartford, Penn. In 1885 he entered the General Passenger Department of his present company, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, as a clerk. Two years later he was appointed general agent in Chicago, and in 1887, Assistant General Passenger Agent.

"I will make no radical changes in the passenger department so far as I now know," said Mr. Miller. Mr. Marsh will continue as Assistant General Passenger Agent, as will Major Merrill, who has a similar title. There will be no Assistant General Passenger Agent appointed to succeed me in charge of the Chicago business."

Mr. Miller is a brother of Roswell Miller, Chairman of the Board of Directors.

---

The New York Times

Published: October 12, 1900

Copyright © The New York Times