Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul System Grants Advance in Wages.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Five hundred machinists employed in the various shops of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad system, have been granted an increase in wages averaging 30 cents a day.

The agreement was reached to-day by General Superintendent Barr and General Manager Williams, in conference with a committee of machinists and D. W. Roderick, manager of the Associated Railroad Districts of the International Association of Machinists.
