ANNUAL REUNION OF VETERANS IS ENDED

Special Dispatch to the Standard. Hamilton, Aug. 24.—The annual encampment of the Grand Army of Hamilton and vicinity came to a close this evening after a rousing camp fire with singing and an exchange of experiences by the "boys of '61." The afternoon was marked by some notable speeches by Judge Henry C. Smith of Helena, John McLaughlin of Stevensville and an able address by E. V. Stewart, whose discussion of conditions past and present in the affairs of the nation met with the hearty applause of his audience.

ered yesterday at the picnic grounds by the river, to tell again the old tales, and shake once more the hands of comrades whom they may never see again. Men and women, relatives and friends of the old soldiers, gathered with them for the annual reunion.

the young Scotchman whose tenor is so pleasing to his Hamilton friends, sang a solo entitled "The Sentinel," accompanied by Miss Fannie Anson, and was heartily applauded.

LEWISTOWN NOTES. Special Dispatch to the Standard. Lewistown, Aug. 24.—For the first time in some years the democrats of this judicial district will have a candidate for district judge in the field this fall.

He will oppose Judge E. K. Chendler, who has long ruled the office with marked ability, and who will make the race as a progressive republican. It is possible, too, that the bull moose progressives may name another candidate for the place, making it a three-cornered fight.

istence officially on Sept. 23. Charles Stevens has brought suit here against George Stevens, charging desertion. They married at Bozeman and it is alleged that the desertion occurred last year.
