

December 28, 1982

Those of you who have been recipients of the Media Monitor on its "special" list are now receiving it for the last time.

If you are not already aware, my position was one of seventy "exempt" jobs abolished at this time.

With Corporate Relations down to only two people, I am not at all certain there will even continue to be a clip book.

I will be returning to Milwaukee to exercise my seniority as a Clerk.
