

NEW YORK BANKERS ON TRIP.

Financiers Headed by W. E. Corey Inspect Western Railroad Property.

Special to The New York Times.

TACOMA, Wash., April 28.—President Earling of the Milwaukee Railway system and Percy Rockefeller have arrived here with a party of Eastern bankers, organized and brought West by John D. Ryan, President of the Amalgamated Copper Company. Following their visit the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railroad will begin a large amount of new construction work in June and July, including numerous feeder lines in Washington and Montana. Some of this work was suddenly stopped two years ago.

The party includes William E. Corey, ex-President of the United States Steel Corporation; C. H. Sabin, Vice President of the Guarantee Trust Company, New York; J. W. Harriman, President of the Harriman National Bank, New York; D. Pomeroy, Vice President of the Bankers Trust Company, New York; J. A. Stillman, Vice President of the National City Bank of New York; A. Mowell, President International Nickel Company, and S. L. Fuller of New York; J. A. Spoor, President of the Union Stock Yards Company, Chicago, and James Perkins, President of the National Commercial Bank of Albany, N. Y.

The bankers will start East to-morrow. Mr. Earling and Mr. Rockefeller will remain two days to inspect the Bellingham Bay Railroad, which was recently purchased. and its branches.
